OPRATORS TO LAY DOWN HEAVY BARRAGE

President to Speak Wednesday to Bar Association in Washington; in Cleveland Saturday

By GEORGE R. HOLMES, International News Service Staff Correspondent

Washington, Oct. 10 (INS)—The big guns of Republican oratory will lay down a veritable barrage this week, as the presidential campaign swings into the final month.

President Hoover will make two major speeches, one to the American Bar Association, Wednesday night, and another in Cleveland on Saturday night.

Tomorrow night, in Madison Sq. Garden, New York, Calvin Coolidge speaks his first word in behalf of the Hoover-Curtis ticket.

Elsewhere, Republican orators of lesser renown will be reinforcing the efforts of the two leaders to swing sentiment to the President.

Announcement of the Cleveland speech Thursday night was made at the White House this morning, but it failed to carry any information as to Mr. Hoover's plans beyond that date.

It was stated that the President probably would make several other speeches, perhaps in New England, New York or New Jersey, in ensuing weeks, but the plans are indefinite.

The present intention is to have the President return to Washington from Cleveland as soon as his speech is concluded. He probably will leave the capital late Friday night, arriving in Cleveland Saturday afternoon, and leave at midnight on the return journey.

There was no information, either, as to Mr. Hoover's subject in Cleveland, but the impression was obtained that it would deal with economic conditions, as did his initial speech of the campaign in Des Moines last week.

Soon after the White House announcement, a delegation of Clevelanders called on Mr. Hoover. They included Carmel Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanna, George Kinney and his daughter, Janet, and Miss Mary K. Brown, noted for her golf and tennis prowess.

THOMPSON SWING IN OHIO

Thompson said the President would speak in the Auditorium, where Calvin Coolidge was nominated for the presidency in 1924. The speech would be at 7:30.

The same extraordinary precautions taken to guard Mr. Hoover from embarrassment or hecklers that were in force in Des Moines will be employed in Cleveland, admission to the auditorium will be by card only, according to present plans.

Thompson said sentiment in Ohio "is swinging to Hoover."

"It still has some way to go to make the state safe, but it is going," he said.

BOTH WAIT MIDDLE WEST

The importance with which both Republican and Democratic leaders regard these Middle Western states is attested by the plans they are making for intensive drives there during the next four weeks.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt will make his bid for their support in an eight-day tour beginning next week, which will carry him as far west as St. Louis.

Republican leaders in most of the States that lie between the Alleghenies and the Rockies are sending frantic appeals to the White House for "more Dew Moines speeches."

The burden of the charge is that the President has been "too quiet" in his speech of acceptance nearly two months ago that he stood by the Republican platform.

Thus far in the campaign, Mr. Hoover has made no mention of prohibition, other than to say in his speech of acceptance nearly two months ago that he stood by the Republican platform.

Boston Men Already Pay Hoover Bets

Roosevelt is as good as elected, if the opinion of some Hoover supporters is to be believed. In Boston, at least, the financial circles in Boston are in any opinion.

Moreover, that opinion is being backed up by cold cash.

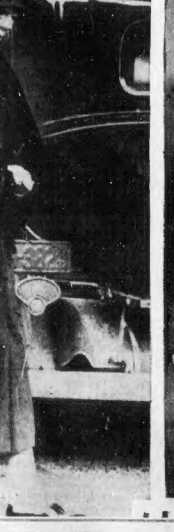

Today, it was learned, several Republicans who made "a little bet" with a prominent official of an anti-prohibition organization that Hoover would win, are now paying their bets in advance of the election.

In other words, they have thrown up this sponge.

O'Brien to Make Race Against G. O. P. Pounds With the Support of Walker

New York, Oct. 10 (AP)—Four men and one woman, all candidates for the office of mayor of New York, went to work today on their campaign plans with the special election necessitated by the resignation of James J. Walker less than a month away.

Lewis H. Pounds, 35-year-old Brooklyn real estate man, who came here from Topeka, Kan., 35 years ago, became Saturday night one of the two leading candidates for the job.

He was nominated by Republicans following an all-day conference of leaders in the office of W. Kingsland Macy, Republican state chairman. The two most important planks in his platform, he said, after his nomination, will deal with tax reduction and budget cutting.

The other leading candidate, Samuel Insull of Chicago, ex-king of power and utilities interests, arrested in Athens, Greece, today because of irregularities in his papers. He is wanted in Chicago in grand larceny and embezzlement charges.

SEN. MOSES' ADS UNDER FIRE

Concord, N. H., Oct. 10.—The Republican state committee today disclaimed any knowledge of political advertising urging the reelection of Senator Moses and announced it had no interest in a complaint charging Moses' advertising had been distributed illegally.

The formal complaint, filed today with the attorney-general by Robert C. Murchie, Democratic state committee chairman, charged that no signature appeared on Moses' advertising appearing in 23 New Hampshire newspapers.

The penalty for such advertising is 60 days' imprisonment or $100 fine.

Barnard Chase, secretary to Governor Winant and chairman of the Republican state committee, said today no Moses advertising had been distributed through his office.

"If there is a question as to the legality of Senator Moses' advertising it will have to be settled by the Senator himself," said Chase. "We are not concerned with it in any way."

Senator Moses, on route to Greece to participate in the last-ditch struggle by the "Republican Flying Squadron" to avoid defeat at the November election, could not be reached for a statement.

His office here it was said that the advertising had not borne the signature because of a clerical error.

ROOSEVELT AND AL TO STUMP TOGETHER

Plans in Making to Have Them Appear at Three Rallies in New England

By LOUIS SIEBOLD

New York, Oct. 10 (UB)—Gov. Roosevelt's advisers are planning to have the Democratic Presidential nominee and Alfred E. Smith appear together at least three rallies to be staged in the New England States.

The reconvening of the two outstanding figures in the Democratic party has paved the way for the realization of his ambitious program.

The plan to have the governor and his original political sponsor appear together has been submitted to Smith. It was said today that while he had not definitely agreed to come along he had displayed a more amenable attitude to the suggestion than was expected.

The appearances of Smith on the same platform with Gov. Roosevelt in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York or New Jersey should dissipate any grievances resulting from the conflict of their Presidential ambitions.

As a result of this plan Governor Roosevelt's program for the remaining four weeks of the campaign, in all likelihood, will be changed.

Roosevelt had expressed a desire to effect personal contact with the voters in the Middle West and some of the Southern states, but a number of the governor's advisers do not believe an extensive speaking tour in these sections is necessary.

The basis for suggestions made to the governor to modify his tentative plan for speaking tours in the West and border states is that conditions existing there are more than satisfactory, and that he should center his efforts on the New England and Atlantic coast states, which at the moment apparently favor the Hoover cause.

One plan submitted to the governor was that he limit the itinerary he now has in view to the central states—Ohio, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana—where the Hoover managers have staged a desperate drive to stem the tide of popular sentiment toward the Roosevelt-Grove ticket.

At the same time it is obvious that by revising his schedule he can thereby challenge the Republicans bid for support in New England.

COURT GUARDED IN NEGRO CASE

Washington, Oct. 10 (AP)—Preparing for a possible Communist demonstration in the Scottsboro cases, which may be reached today in the Supreme Court, Chicago officials today cleared the plaza in front of the Capitol of automobiles and an extra police guard was provided to maintain order.

The case involves a plea of seven negroes, convicted of assaulting two white girls near Scottsboro, Ala., for the court to set aside their death sentences.

During the summer an extensive Communist propaganda by postal cards in behalf of the seven negroes was conducted. Many thousands of printed postal cards have been received urging the court to release the men.

Last spring a number of women from Vassar and Vassar colleges appeared in Washington to interest senators in behalf of the condemned men.

MADE UP TALE AFTER VICTIM WAS KILLED

Lined Up Convicts to Relate How Maillefert Threatened to End Life in Sweatbox

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 10 (AP)—Bob Blake, former head trusty at the Bunkam prison camp, testified today that George Courson, one of two former guards charged with murdering Arthur Maillefert in the sweat box, obtained his help in fitting up a story portraying the youth as committing suicide.

Blake also testified he had seen Courson beat Maillefert with a heavy rubber hose prior to the youth's death.

The witness said after Maillefert died, Courson came to him and asked the trusty to obtain Mrs. Maillefert's address.

"I got it," declared Blake, "then Capt. Courson told me: 'Bob, there's little to be made out of this.'"

"Yes, cap'n, it is a pretty tight spot," Blake said he replied.

"He told me to go in and get him two or six witnesses who might be able to clear him at the trial."

TESTIMONY ADMITTED

"I did. After I went out I told Courson I thought he had a story that would hold water."

"I said Snyder is going to testify."

At this juncture the defense raised a volley of objections that the jury should not hear this portion of Blake's testimony.

Judge Gibbs sent the jury out while the argument proceeded, then ruled the testimony admissible and the jury filed back.

Blake then resumed, saying he told Courson:

"Snyder is going to testify that if it comes to trial that Jersey (Maillefert) told him he was going to commit suicide that night."

'FRAMED' SUICIDE STORY

The witness said that "framed" it so Snyder was to tell how Jersey (Maillefert) told him he was going to commit suicide that night.

"Several others of us were going to corroborate it."

"I told him just to back up what I supposed to say."

"When the coroner came, he just looked at the body and said it was a plain case of suicide."

Courson used Maillefert with a piece of hose such as is used in coupling hose in A. P. Blake said.

"The day after the whipping, Blake declared, 'Courson told me to stay around the camp, that he might need me.'"

NAILED BOARD ON NECK

"That is the barrel," answered Blake as State's Atty. Durrance asked if the exhibit in the courtroom was the same barrel.

"Courson nailed one board back of Maillefert's neck; another in front of his neck."

"Jersey said: 'Capt. Courson, you are putting that one on too tight.'"

"Courson replied: 'I don't give a damn if I am.'"

"They left him there. I got him a drink of water."

TEX GUINAN IN REAL LOVE FOR FIRST TIME

Queen of the Night Clubs Admits She's Got It Bad, but Keeps Name Secret

New York, Oct. 10 (INS)—They are going to be playing "Here Comes the Bride" for Texas Guinan. The rip-roaring hostess of New York's night clubs is going to be married right after Christmas to—would you ever have guessed it?—"the most wonderful man in the world!"

"How do you spell it?" asked the reporter.

"You don't," came the husky reply. "I won't tell his name yet. But you can say it's true I've got to have him. I'm in love for the first time in my life."

Then over the telephone from Rochester, where Miss Guinan is presently in vaudeville this week, came a squeal—a regular soprano schoolgirl squeal.

GOODBYE! A TELEGRAM

"I've just got a telegram from him," she said.

She read it out in every syllable. But she stopped just short of the signature.

He is so important a man, will know all over the country, and connected with the show business. He is 38, a Canadian, has been married before, but for a long time, according to his fiancée, "he hasn't been working at it."

Worship him, Oh, yes, no doubt about it. He does not want her to work when they are married. But she is going to work anyhow.

CHEER UP, SUCCESS!

"Wouldn't you be glad if I didn't," she said breathily. "I know. I've been married before."

But you said this was the first time. "I was deeply in love for the first time," she corrected, with dignity. "I had come to the conclusion a husband is a sweetheart with his nerve taken out. But I am willing to give this one a chance."

"How many times have you been married?"

"This will be my fourth. I was married twice in America and once on the level. I believe in love and I believe in marriage, although I think marriage is carrying love too far."

"And, oh, yes. Don't forget to say I won't give up my girls. I love those kids of mine."

She was referring to her troupe. "I always say I'd rather have those 12 kids than $1,000,000, because when you have the money you want more, but when you have 12 kids you know you have enough!"

Benjamin Franklin, Is Revealed as Pioneer Nudist of America

Philadelphia, Oct. 19 (AP)—Nudism, generally looked on nowadays as ultra-modernity, is old stuff, it appears.

An extract from a letter written by Franklin in 1788, found among ancestral papers of J. Ogden Cuthbert of Cynwyd, Pa., a suburb, reveals that Franklin practiced nudism.

"I have found it," the pioneer wrote, "agreeable to my constitution to bathe in cold air. I rise early almost every morning and sit in my chamber, without any clothes whatever, half an hour, according to the season, either reading or writing."

"I find no ill consequences whatever resulting from it. I shall call it for the future 'bathing in cold air'."

Franklin's nudist letters were discovered by the late Dr. J. Ogden Cuthbert, who was a member of the American Nudist Society.

JUDGE ASSASSIN JURY VERDICT IN DEATH TRIAL

Worcester, Oct. 19.—Incensed at numerous charges to the contrary, Judge Russell H. Beaudreau ordered 30 prospective jurors to appear for a "lecture" today in which the court warned against efforts to avoid jury service.

The case was that of Roy Martin, 27, of Spencer, charged with the killing of Mrs. Pearl Martin, 38, his landlady, in August.

Four men had been accused because they said they had formed opinions, and another pleaded he had developed sympathy for the defendant, when Judge Beaudreau halted court.

"There have been too many efforts lately to duck jury service," he told the panel.

"You and every other citizen must realize that jury service is a duty and the court does not intend to excuse one on flimsy excuses."

The trial was resumed.

Richard D. Dehorsey, Leominster dentist; Paul T. Caine, a Worcester printer, and Oliver Symons, a Winton blacksmith, were the first three selected.

Martin sobbed almost continually, and a guard was kept at his elbow because of reports he might attempt suicide.

At the time of his arrest, shortly after five shots killed Mrs. Martin was quoted by police as having confessed: "He is being defended by a state appointed counsel."

ADAMS IN REPLY TO MORMACK

Secretary of the Navy Adams, arriving in Boston today, replied to critics by Cong. John W. McCormack, who protested against a delay of 15 months in starting work on a destroyer to be built at the Boston Navy Yard.

Adams understood the time interval between letting of contracts and start of construction, and one must understand the planning necessary to build a modern battleship, said Secretary Adams.

"The Navy Department is making every effort to start work as quickly as possible, but it is a task complicated by the requirements of the navy as efficiently and as cheaply as possible."

Secretary Adams came here to attend a meeting of the Harvard Board of Overseers tomorrow. He will speak on naval problems at Lowell House, Harvard dormitory, tonight.

STRAW VOTERS ROOSEVELT IS FOR ROOSEVELT HOLDING LEAD

New York, Oct. 19 (INS)—The summarized weekly tabulation of straw poll ballots taken by 50 periodicals throughout the country shows that Governor Roosevelt is more than 85 per cent ahead of President Hoover in the totals, according to the national Democratic headquarters.

Figures are Roosevelt, 878,005; Hoover, 626,399; Thomas, 63,337; and scattering, 16,372.

The two nationwide-wide conducted by the Hearst newspaper and the Literary Digest both give Governor Roosevelt an advantage slight in excess of the summarized totals of all polls.

In Pennsylvania, where the Democrats believe they will have a chance this year, one in Lancaster, the heart of the great tobacco growing belt, gives Hoover 279 and Roosevelt 203.

The Times at St. Louis gives Hoover 234 and Roosevelt 632.

One Southern paper at Huntington, W. Va., gives Hoover an edge of four votes in its poll; the totals being Hoover 138 and Roosevelt 134.

MAYOR WHITE CALLED 'POWER TRUST TOOL'

The "iron hand of the New England Power Trust" kept Mayor William P. White of Lawrence away from today's hearing before the Department of Public Utilities on light and gas reductions, according to charges of Matthew P. Maury, president of the Lawrence Central Labor Union, and Robert Watt, legislative agent of the American Federation of Labor.

Neither Mayor White nor the city solicitor of Lawrence was present when the hearing was called and the petitioners presented their demands for reduced rates by the Lawrence Gas & Electric Light Co.

"Despite the unanimous action of the Lawrence City Council to give financial and moral aid to this petition, Mayor White and the city solicitor have ignored this important hearing," said Maury.

"I have no doubt that pressure has been brought to bear on these men to prevent them from being here to represent their constituents in a matter which means so much to the people of Lawrence."

Watt added his belief that the mayor's absence was due to "malicious influences."

As the hearing closed with the matter taken under advisement, Mayor White rushed into the chamber explaining that "his car broke down."

Maury replied:

"It is apparent that the iron hand of the New England Power Trust reached out and got you. The mayor made no reply. Atty. Edward C. Mason, representing the Lawrence company, denied any influence had been exerted on the mayor by the power interests. He produced records alleged to show a deficit of $11,000 compared with the earnings of last year."

Publicity of All Power Deals Urged by Smith

Washington, Oct. 10 (AP)—Full publicity concerning the affairs of public utility companies to bring about more effective regulation was advocated today by George Otis Smith, chairman of the power commission. In an address to the public utility law section of the American Bar Association, Dr. Smith said:

"The working principle of administrative control of such corporate evils as the whole country has suffered from in these later years should, I believe, be full publicity of the corporation's daily life."

"The business of a public utility needs to be done in the open, even to the extent of requiring approval in advance by some public authority for many of the plans now disclosed only years afterward."

TREAT A COLD IN THE FIRST STAGE

—and You Nip It in the Bud!

A cold ordinarily progresses through three stages: The Dry Stage, the first 24 hours; the Watery Secretion Stage, 1 to 3 days; the Mucous Secretion Stage. Relief in the first stage is far easier than in the later stages. In fact, it is taking chances to let a cold run beyond 24 hours.

As soon as you catch a cold the wise thing to do is to take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. This famous tablet stops a cold quickly because it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels. It kills the cold germs and fever in the system. It relieves the headache and grippiness feeling. It tones the entire system and fortifies against further attack. That is the treatment a cold needs!

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is effective, but harmless. Contains no narcotics and produces no bad after-effects. For years it has been the reliance of thousands in all cases of colds and grippe. Every drug store in America sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. Handy, pocket-size box, cellophane-wrapped. Get it today.

LAWRENCE BOY DYING IN BRAWL OVER GIRL

Lawrence, Oct. 10.—One man is dying and another is under bail today as the result of a mysterious midnight shooting that police believe centers around a girl.

Wounds from a bullet that penetrated his abdomen and lodged in his back today left Rene Morin, 22, of 150 Valley st., waging a battle for life at Memorial hospital.

Wilbur Russell, 23, of 192 Lowell st., bailed early Sunday after he was charged with misappropriating an automobile, was held in $100 bail in the shooting.

The girl, who disappeared just before the shooting, is also wanted for questioning.

According to police, the girl approached a group of men that included Morin and asked them to "act as if they knew her." She said a man was following her.

Morin, with Wilfred Cortese and Leo Cassa, both of Lowell st., opened a conversation with the girl and were joined by Len Hamel of Haverhill st. and a man known as "The Duke," they said.

Morin told police at the hospital that Russell appeared and entered into an altercation with the entire group.

He-men like 'em
Mild

YOU might think that a two-fisted fellow like the steel jack in the picture would like his tobacco strong. Not at all.

He wants his cigarettes mild and that's why he picks Chesterfields.

Mildness doesn't mean a smoke that's weak or flat or insipid or anything like that. In fact it's just the reverse. Two-fisted fellows as well as anyone else—men and women—want a cigarette that's mild... one that satisfies—and that's Chesterfield.

We believe that every smoker is looking for a cigarette without any "bite" or bitterness, and a cigarette that has a pleasing taste—and that's Chesterfield.

Jaques Curley
Entitled to Mat.
Benny Should Quit.

Francis Albertanti was born in Mulberry Street, N. Y. O. As a boy the only wide open spaces he knew were Union sq. and Madison sq., where he peddled his papers. When he grew up to be a newspaper man the only West he knew anything about was the West side. Recently he has been press-agenting the World Series rodeo, with which he has done a great job in spite of being confused at times as to what it is all about. To illustrate:

If you have been in the vicinity of Madison Square Garden the past day or so you probably have noticed that the cowboys have begun to arrive for the big stamper under the "L" and over the subway. It was Friday afternoon that Francis chanced to overhear two of them talking in the Garden lobby.

"I'd like to see these broncs," said one.

Wishing to be helpful to his clients, Signor Albertanti promptly stepped forward and, no doubt to the utter amazement of the two cowboys, said:

"Just walk over to the 50th st. subway station on Broadway and take any Lenox ave. train."

Curley Shakes Up Sherry Flip

Mons. Jaques Curley will shake up a little sherry flip, or "sherry flip," as the immaculate attendants of that class party probably will call it, the Fifteenth Street Temple of Sport this evening. To put it in plain words, Curley has Jack Sherry wrestling Ed Lewis for the heavyweight championship.

All on sides one hears stories about conditions in the wrestling business; that they are going to give Curley the works, that Jimmy Johnston is trying to get him from the Garden, that Curley was never the fact man, anyway, and only took orders from Tom Parks in St. Louis, and so on and so forth.

All of which this bureau knows nothing about. But this much it does think it knows—that wrestling in New York City without the terrible Turk and colder than a row of beans. Whatever he may be, in fact—Gus, Lieberman, or just front man—in the minds of the fans Curley is wrestling in our town.

By perseverance and personality alone, Jack Curley blew the breath of life back into what was a gold-digger's heart. Nobody else wanted any part of wrestling when he was struggling to get it back on its shoulder blades. Why should they try to take it away from him now? It's his dog; he's entitled to it.

It is amazing to hear people say that Lewis is not a real champion. Who was? And when?

Yale Doesn't Want to Hurt Anybody's Feelings

I begin to see what's wrong with the Yale football team. It doesn't want to hurt anybody's feelings. It is a team that is coached by Dr. Marvin Stevens, has played two games this fall and wound up in two ties. With Bates nothing to nothing, with Chicago seven to seven. Under the circumstances it might be a good idea to call the Yale the Even-Stevens.

This is not meant to reflect on the showing of Stagg's Chicago team in the Bowl last Saturday. The Yale boys were played they really should have won. But I guess the Yale boys don't like to hurt their own feelings and, so they rallied and staved off defeat in a precarious first period.

Maybe what this Yale team needs is an Albo Booth. They tried all the known ways to put the crimpers on this one up there, but the little guy was just a born winner. Booth had what a lot of athletes who are around there lack, the old optimism. He didn't always get it but when he galloped out there you knew he was going for bacon.

But then every year football gets a little more like the class in ballroom dancing. They've even got 'em handing their cards to the referee when they come in the ring this season.

Leonard Should Quit Ring

A gentleman who signs himself "Horse Doctor" wires me at my home to ask:

"What should our neighbor Benny Leonard do now?"

Answer: Quit fighting.

Outdoor Boxing Season Closes Wednesday

Jack Fagarty will wind up the outdoor boxing season Wednesday evening when he presides over a prize-fight card at Ebbets Field in behalf of a Maelco exhibition.

The two champions who will be seen in action are Tony Cannonieri and Maxie Rosenbloom. They will be seen in action at Ebbets Field in the meeting Jack Fagarty, while in the future, Billy Petrolle is sending his little brother, Harry, to New York City.

This is contrary to the usual procedure in the Petrolle family. Ordinarily Billy attends them up and then sends Francis to finish the job. In the case of Battle of the Bells, however, the old left hook sweeper is somewhere in the west just now, so his little brother will attempt to ready Tony for him. Tony and Bill are scheduled to fight in the Garden for Cannonieri's lightweight title later in the season. I hope this isn't confusing to you. It is to me, so I'm going to let it go.

Bill Grimes Best of Saturday's Grid Prognosticators

The sports staff of the American took more or less of a cutting in predicting the winners of 10 leading football games Saturday.

As a result of picking five winners, and correctly calling the between the Indians and Ohio State, Bill Grimes goes to the head of the list with a percentage of 200.

On the other hand, not using the old Maglo Colon dumped Jack Conway to the bottom of the list with a bare percentage of 200.

Ray Helgeson, George Underwood, George Grimm, and Joe Monaghan broke even at 200, while Joe Cashman and Bill Connell played them the hard way to wind up in the 400 class of Fred Lane.

Connerus, the wise guy, finished with a 200 average. In this league, just to make it tougher, a tie must be so-called or count as a loss. That's why Yale, California, and Indiana, most of the staff down. We claim that if you can't spot a tie in advance you're no expert.

Next Saturday, the staff will try again with 10 leading games. Incidentally, how did you get

EVARETT AND SOMERVILLE VICTIMS

By BILL CONNELL

School football fans emerged from the games of Saturday a trifle dazed after seeing the favorites in the main show forced to their limit to avoid defeat by supposedly inferior rivals.

Everett, Malden, Somerville and Salem, pre-game favorites in the big affairs of the day were all tossed around under the broiling sun, and lost plenty of pounds staying off the defeat scroll.

James may be just notions, but try to convince Somerville fans of that today. A green Medford team which had lost much in losing three straight, evicted gaily on Dilboy Field and walked off with a convoluted tie, making it 19 years since Somerville beat Medford.

EARNED TIE

Medford earned the tie, for it checked the Somerville attack through the game, excepting the fourth period drive which shot the home boys from midfield to the Medford eight-yard marker. The delay there while the crowd, mostly from the home side, did not do Somerville a bit of good.

Had the crowd not skipped through for nice gains, and Cliff Brown, the star, who had not played since he was 19 years since Somerville beat Medford.

Stagg Returns to Yale -- And How! -- Tiger Star Gets Treated Rough

He just made it. But it was enough to tie the Bulldogs and send the old Man back to Chicago happy. That's Sahlin, best of Stagg's backs, just after he had made a marvelous catch of Zimmer's 37-yard pass near the goal-line, with two Yale tacklers ready to take him. Sahlin barely managed to fall over the line. Another score made by Sahlin, from scrimmage, was nullified when referee decided he had stepped out of bounds.

LEAGUE LEAD MR. BOSTON

NOW THAT the Callahan-Brouillard ring battle is a matter of history, I find Old John Public displaying keen interest in the finish wrestling bout between Henr DeGlane and Al Morelli, which will be staged by Paul Bowser at the Boston Garden on Friday night.

DeGlane is one champion who doesn't hesitate in putting his record in the ring. He is a champion who is always ready to take a fight. He is a champion who is always ready to take a fight.

The Princeton Tiger (you remember him, perhaps, though he's been more of a heart throb these last years) came into his own again at a set of roaring Lions at Baker Field. The Tigers lost but put up such a swell fight that experts predict Crisler will have them up there as one of the toughest teams in the East before many weeks. That's Dick James (above) being snared by a few Lions to stop a six-yard gain.

FITTONS BOOK 2 CANTABS TOP TILTS FOR WEEK

East Boston's Fittons face a high spot of a slim tilt at Wednesday. Rindge Tech and Cambridge Latin, which practice in Cambridge many all the seasons at Russell Field, become foes for the day at the North Cambridge location.

The Peabody invasion of Beverly is another game for the holiday thrill seekers. Peabody has the call among North Shore fans for this game, but Beverly will make the go a fine battle.

Also set for the holiday is the Framingham at Norwood dual, and the Boston twin bill at Fenway park. In the local dual meeting, English faces Trade and Dorchester colts with Michael Ellis.

Of more immediate interest is the doubleheader tomorrow at Fenway, with Memorial tackling South Boston, and Hyde Park warring with Brighton.

Sergeant Roy Pierce of the Somerville police did a fine job with the small force available at the Somerville-Medford game Saturday. A few Metropolitan District police were on hand for the game, but the total force was inadequate. For a field like Dilboy, a small army of officers are needed to keep a crowd in hand.

AN OPEN LETTER

from W. J. KENNEDY

PRESIDENT - THE KENNEDY COMPANY

SKETCHED
PHILIP TRUEMAN HICKS

This is a straightforward message about Kennedy's, our principles, our policy, our program. I hope you will take the time to read it through, because I think it will be worth your while.

First, let me assure you that no miracles are being performed in the clothing business . . . just as you know there are no miracles being performed in your business. No one can consistently offer $5 bills for one dollar, nor can many of today's exaggerated advertising claims be substantiated.

We candidly confess that our business has suffered. With our dollar volume shrinking due to the decreased earning capacity of our customers, we have been faced almost daily during the last three years with the temptation to lower our standards and join in the hysteria, shouting price from the housetops.

And let me assure you that it has been no easy task to sit and "take it" when we knew there was a lot of extra volume to be secured if we would only forget our standards and cash in on the good name and reputation that 39 years of honest merchandising had secured for us. On the other hand, we don't think we deserve halos for sticking to the narrow path. The principle is too old and tried to be anything but successful in the long run.

It takes no prophetic vision to say that business today is on the upgrade . . . at the turn of the road. Everywhere about us are visible and definite signs of improvement. Men in increasing numbers will be replenishing their wardrobes shortly, and we invite those men to weigh the following facts when selecting their source of supply:

IS KENNEDY'S HIGH PRICED?

Just as you would naturally expect us to, our answer to that question is a firm and definite NO. Claims must be proved to be worthwhile. To prove the intrinsic value of clothing is very difficult. But we ask you to use your common sense and weigh these facts:

1. Kennedy's ten stores are the largest distributors of Men's wear in New England.

2. Kennedy's merchandise bills are paid within 10 days.

(These two facts alone mean that all manufacturers, without exception, would like to sell to Kennedy's. That seems reasonable, doesn't it?)

3. Kennedy's concentrate only on men's and boys' wear, with no women's departments, no side lines, nothing but clothing, furnishings, hats and shoes for men and boys.

4. Kennedy's executives are all active in buying and selling, working long hours each of the six working days every week. We have no high-priced "wall flowers" using valuable desk space and adding to our overhead.

5. Kennedy's is a New England institution, owned and operated 100% by New England men. Not a single dollar's worth of stock in this corporation is outside of New England.

6. Kennedy's success, from the start, has been based upon delivering the right merchandise, at the right time, at the right price—a price in most instances lower than that quoted by any other store in America, due to our great volume of business, relatively low overhead and our narrow profit margin.

Months and months of preparation and planning preceded today's demonstration of value giving. We have searched far and wide for superior merchandise—have been on many wild goose chases—rejected more lines than we accepted—and now we say, without fear of contradiction, that Kennedy's stocks are the most comprehensive and representative in our history. Never before have we been so strategically situated.

GOOD CLOTHES FOR EVERY MAN

Whether your budget this fall limits you to $17 for one of our new Kenford suits, or whether you can afford an investment of $50 or more, it is our sincere belief that you will get the most for your money at Kennedy's.

GIN RICKEYS PUT 2 INTO COURT

Gin rickeys were very noticeable in federal court today—that is, testimony regarding them. . . . Jack Sweeney of Topfield st., Dorchester, said by the prohibition agents (who should know) to be an adept at mixing aickey, was held in $500 for the grand jury for selling one to a dry raider. . . . Sweeney presided at an old-time bar in Chester st., South End, until he mistook a dry agent for a regular patron. . . . Another dry agent—or maybe it was the same one—went into Julio's restaurant in Causeway st. and said to the waiter. . . . "Let's have a gin sicky." . . . Of course he was only joking, those dry agents are full of jokes. . . . Imagine his embarrassment when the waiter brought a sticky, gin-rick. . . . He had to drink it. . . . Then he arrested Julio Covino of Tilton st., North End, and Julio was held for the grand jury in $1000.

New York, Oct. 30.—A promising forenoon rally in the stock market today was used by the market by the gain of only 15.48 points in U. S. Steel's unfilled orders for September.

Publication of these figures brought renewed pressure on the market, and stocks fell 10 to 12 points, with many issues selling under Saturday's closing figures, with net losses of 1 to 6 points.

BETTER RISE EXPECTED

Wall Street had been anticipating a longer gain of at least 50, 000, and the small rise was disappointing, even though it marked the second consecutive rise in the corporation's orders after 10 months of decline.

Stocks ran into support around Saturday's low, however, and the reaction was checked for a time as activity dried up.

U. S. Steel and American Telephone were notably soft. Farm implement and mail order shares were weak with wheat. Motor stocks turned downward after an early recovery on the upward.

Radio issues met considerable selling on the advance, but the government would prosecute its anti-trust suit. Both the common and preferred B stock were selling down, with a tendency to pick up on the down, with some fair sized blocks coming out of the tape.

Rails and farm implement stocks continued to show the poorest tone. Wheat in the early upturn was disappointing, and contributed to the decline after the steel figures were published.

The first of the large railroad system to report a decline in freight last week was Atchafalaya, which had declined 27.41 cents, against 28.77 cents the previous week.

Other reports for last week were awaited with interest, for continuation of the recent improvement in the volume of freight well into October would be a reversal of the usual seasonal trend and would be considered favorably.

A better tone in the dollar in the foreign exchange market was widespread as an encouraging report from brokers with foreign connections reported that the selling of American securities for foreign currencies seemed to be subsiding, and some issues actually had a recovery of late October, although the business appeared to be further.

The increase from 1932 was 28 percent, the smallest for any month this year since February, when it was 25.1 per cent, against 61.4 per cent in July, 44.4 per cent in June, and 48.3 per cent in May.

The seasonal decline in retail sales from August was 1.2 per cent, the smallest August-September recession since 1925. Last year September retail sales dropped 2.8 per cent from August. In preceding years, when introduced.

Busick models in August provided a stimulus to retail demand lacking in the past two years. In September, declines were 12.3 per cent in 1930, 17.7 per cent in 1929, and 21.8 per cent in 1928.

Rayon Yarn Users Find Supplies Short

Users of rayon products continue to find it difficult to secure needed supplies for business purposes. The reason for the completion of contracts for cloth for deliveries extending into weeks ahead, Dore states. Rayon manufacturers hope that the condition will ease in the next few weeks, as supplies being more largely available when production catches up with orders. The silk trade has come to a seasonal lull on new business, but the volume of business done last month was large, and mill activity continues fair.

Auto Financing Is Lowered in Canada

New York, Oct. 30.—Automobile financing in Canada shows a 25 per cent decrease in September compared with July and indicates a falling off in financing compared with the corresponding month in 1932.

Soviet Car Output 9,127 in First Half

Signs of Cheer for California's Oil

Some Lines Noted

By MERRILL S. RUCKENSTEIN

New York, Oct. 30.—As business indices, with slight exceptions, began to confirm the summer upturn in security prices, the latter pervertedly reacted sharply.

There are numerous explanations of the reaction, but one of the important ones is that pools, which are more or less disreputable agencies for market manipulation, have been forced to close their doors. They seek to buy cheap, and then through financing pools on the side of optimism is developed for the first time in four years the majority of business statistics are able to reflect narrow, seasonal, but important, changes.

Meaning, though the amplitude of the rise in stock prices, as expressed in percentages, was unusually great. In the petroleum business, however, it was very slight, but has been quite restrained and somewhat spotty. Perhaps the most that can be said is that the outlook is better for the first time in four years the majority of business statistics are able to reflect narrow, seasonal, but important, changes.
